

Sunflower Genealogy Society
General Meeting Minutes
Tuesday 23 April 2024 2:00 p.m.

CALL TO ORDER

Director Eileen Carney called to order the hybrid Zoom and in-person meeting at 2:00 p.m. Seventeen people attended in the Fiesta Room and two joined via Zoom.

SPEAKER

Tim Wardell, a family history aficionado with experience in video editing and print/video document digitization, presented the Society with a review of the history of digitization and some practical suggestions to help us preserve our own family mementos. It was a well-attended and much-appreciated gift of knowledge.

ICEBREAKER

Member-At-Large Kathryn Smith led an icebreaker where we shared photos that were important to us.

OFFICER REPORTS

- A. Director. Eileen Carney recruited a volunteer to bring refreshments to the May meeting.
- B. Assistant Director. No report today.
- C. Secretary minutes are online and were approved by the director.
- D. Treasurer's report: Kim Gunyou reported the Society's income and expenses for March. We had one expense for our speaker and no income. Balance $2228.62.

NEW BUSINESS

Next month: Suzanne Brayer, speaking on Immigrants and their Stories.

The meeting was adjourned at 3:35 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Kim Gunyou, substituting for SGS Secretary
